
Possessive pronouns practice worksheet

Exercise

Fill in the correct singular, plural, and gender-neutral possessive pronouns.

- A: Is this Jessica's jacket that's hanging on the chair?
B: Yes, it's _____. She left it there earlier.
- A: _____ book is that on the table?
B: I'm not sure. It isn't _____.
- A: This is your pen and this is his pen.
= This is your pen and this is _____.
- A: Are these laptops available for anyone to use?
B: No, they're _____. We're using them for the project.
- A: I found some notes in the conference room. Who do they belong to?
B: They must be _____. They had a meeting there earlier.
- A: Someone left a scarf in my car. Do you know _____ it is?
B: I think it's _____. I saw them wearing it yesterday.
- A: Do you think our group project is better or their group project?
= Do you think our group project is better or _____?
- A: _____ idea was it to start the community garden?
B: It was _____. We planned it together last summer.
- A: My ice cream flavor was cookies and your ice cream was pistachio.
= My ice cream flavor was cookies and _____ was pistachio.
- A: Her trip was in Germany and my trip was in New Zealand.
= Her trip was in Germany and _____ was in New Zealand.